

Amit Borkar
GM, SCM
A Raymond Fasteners India

He joined A Raymond in April 2015 and is responsible for leading the Supply Chain Operations, implementing operating systems and enhancing the End to End Supply Chain performance. To his credit, significant role in reshaping the Supply Chain Strategy resulting in improved order fulfillment and sales revenue and driving functional excellence.

His last assignment was at Linamar India as Head Purchase & Supply Chain for a Green field project. He began his professional career in year 2000 with Cummins India in Pune where he gained 14 years of experience in various roles and responsibilities in domestic and international Purchasing. To his credit, contributed in various new product launches for domestic and international markets, cost reduction programmes and establishing supply chain for green field project and Six Sigma projects. The last role held was of Purchasing Leader for Power Generation Business Unit.

He has completed his executive Masters in Business Administration from SP Jain, Mumbai and earned Bachelor Degree in Mechanical engineering from Pune University.

He is also Honorary Treasure for Indian Institute of Materials Management (IIMM), Pune branch.